“ Dear Stinson Family;

While reading the online obituary, I observed the death of your love one. Death is an enemy to mankind and who can understand it? It can and dose have a devastating effect on you and your family as well.

Can you imagine reading a newspaper with the headline; "When Death is Swallowed Up Forever....." What a wonderful time that will be. Revelation 21:4 offers this hope, it states: "And he (God) will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will morning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. " The former things have passed away." What a comforting hope.

If you would be interested in learning even more, I can send you a little tract that is entitle "What Hope for Dead Loved Ones"? If you have any Questions please feel free to contact me at this e-mail address here (b.molina56@yahoo.com).

I offer my sincere condolences, may the God of peace be with you and your family.

Sincerely Yours,
Brandy Molina

“ Momma Hewell, you were always a classy lady, And made sure us girls were too. Way too classy for a disease like Alzheimer to take your life. I stayed at your house a lot when younger. We all hung out downstairs in the basement and would DANCE, DANCE, DANCE. Going to church with you guys also. Wasn't Christmas without Midnight Mass at St. Peters. Donna and I would always make fun of your Canadian accent when you would tell us to "Get Out of the House (Hose)!". SO MANY memories. I know the heavens have another angel looking after us all. To the Hewell and Stinson family, may God help heal your empty heart. Keep your memories alive and it will get you through.

Love you all!
