

Cameron Craig May

August 24, 1992 - July 2, 2021

Cameron Craig May of Mint Hill died Friday, July 2nd, 2021 at his home.

Cameron was born in Charlotte, North Carolina, August 24th, 1992 to Craig and Kristi May and attended Butler High School where he enjoyed playing football as a Butler Bulldog.

Motivated by his intrepid spirit, Cameron moved his life to the outer banks of North Carolina. There, Cameron was able to combine his passion for art and knowledge of carpentry into building furniture from reclaimed wood. In his time off, he enjoyed riding his motorcycle.

His love of the outdoors and traveling was often recalled by his time in Alaska and the mountains of North Carolina where his love for camping, fishing and hunting were brought together. His love for the outdoors continued with his current job working in landscape design and development.

Cameron will be remembered as funny, kind, loving and for his profound empathy for the less fortunate. He will always remain a loyal son, brother and friend.

Cameron is survived by his mother, Kristi May, father, Craig May, brothers Jordan and Christian May. He is loved by his paternal grandmother Mary May, numerous aunts, uncles and cousins. He leaves his love to his devoted black lab Maci May.

Ceremonies will be held privately. In memory of Cameron's life, donations may be made to the following charity. <https://ground40.com/>

“ My heart goes out to you Kristie and family. Cameron had such a sweet soul just like his parents. I had no idea he went on to make furniture out of reclaimed wood - how beautiful. I know he'll be so missed and may Jesus bring you His peace until you see this sweet boy again.

“ I am so sad and sorry to hear this news. I remember having the opportunity to teach Cameron in the 2nd grade. He was very sweet , kind hearted and a hard working student. I was very fond of Cameron and always knew if I ever had a son or daughter I would choose the name Cameron. I named my first born son Cameron.

I am sending my prayers and condolences to you and your family during this time.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. My heart goes out to all of you. Hugs and love. I remember Cameron being such a sweet boy when he was at Bain and so nice to Brent when he came over to hang out with the twins.
