

Carl W. Stogner

November 9, 1942 - November 7, 2019

Carl Wilton Stogner, 76, Matthews, passed away on November 7, 2019 at Novant Health Mint Hill Medical Center. Wilt as he was commonly referred to by family and friends was born on November 9, 1942 to the late Mozelle Mims and Carl Haywood Stogner in Columbia, Richmond County, South Carolina.

During his working career, Wilt was a very skilled carpenter, concentrating his craftsmanship on residential projects. In addition to living in Mecklenburg County, he lived in Alaska and Hawaii. Wilt was a proud member of First Baptist Church of Indian Trail and enjoyed all the friends he had there. He loved to play pranks on people and enjoyed making them laugh.

Most important to him, though was his family, he loved his children: son Sean Stogner and wife Tracy; and his daughter Michelle Tucker and her husband Duane; grandchildren Lexy and Brendan Stogner and Caleb and Madison Tucker, they all called him "Paw Paw". He is also survived by sister Ruby Sutton and her husband Travis; brother Harold Stogner and his wife Jackie, many nieces and nephews and a wealth of extended family, as his grandfather had 24 children! In addition to being predeceased by his parents, Wilt's former wife of 31 years and mother of their children Phyllis Floyd Stogner predeceased him 6 years ago; and his brother Kenny Stogner also was awaiting Wilt when he arrived in Heaven.

If you are planning on attending the Celebration of Wilt's life, please feel free to dress comfortably as he would like it no other way!

“ Wilton was a nephew who I enjoyed very much being with. He was a caring and warm individual. Jim and I will never forget when he met us in Alaska and showed us around the area. Never gets dark there. Then we took a cruise around the islands of Hawaii. Found out Wilton was living there. He met us and we visited one site together, showed us his home and the area. Those were delightful times. Our growing up years will always be memorable. RIP, Wilton, in the arms of Jesus. "Aunt" Nancy and Jim
