“ I was just thinking of Jim not long ago. One Halloween he dressed up as a lady. At that point we all wore those hard plastic masks. He arrived at my Aunt Mary and Uncle Al's Reeds house. Robin, Mindy and I were back from trick or treating so we were there when he arrived. Aunt Mary guessed every girl within a 2 mile radius I think. Robin, Mindy, and I were roaring. The secret were the gloves he had on....totally confused her. I was also thinking of how Uncle Al would take us to the "flats" next to his house to go ice skating. The Choconut Creek would flood and freeze, making it a great neighborhood skating rink. I'm sorry for your loss and hope you may soon remember some of these special times too!

“ Dear Marie and Greg, it is with great sadness I learned today of Jim's passing. Although we had lost touch over the last few years I will always treasure fond memories of our growing up on Glenwood Road. We had lots of wide open space to roam and discover as well as a good community of friends to grow up with and around. May God grant you grace and peace during this difficult season. Our prayers are with you.

“ When I first met Jim over 40 years ago what struck me about him were his friendliness, enthusiasm, and his persistent smile. As we met at family events over the years, he always displayed those wonderful characteristics that made him Jim - he will be missed so very much! Vicki and I send our greatest condolences to everyone in Jim's beloved family.
