“ I met Sally (and Nat) back in the 70's through my sisterGloria. Sally was larger than life in so many ways. She was kind & thoughtful. She had a great laugh and a smile to match. I never heard her say an unkind word about anyone (except maybe her neighbor Pat in Selden). It was always a pleasure spending time with Sally. She will be greatly missed.

“ There are so many photos and memories that I have of Sally and Nat. Weekends on the boat. Trying to get Sally on the boat as she laughed so hard it was a sight to see. We gathered almost every day for as long as we all lived on Day's Avenue. She was a true friend and would do anything for you. How lucky we were to have Sally and Nat as lifelong friends. I take comfort knowing that she is back with Nat and Matthew and Frankie and Anthony and the rest of her family. You will be missed. Gloria Iannotti and Family

“ I will miss Sally's infectious laugh. It was larger than life. They say laughter is good for the soul. I heard it as a young child living next door first and can still hear it today! You will always be in our hearts. Thank you for being a part of my life! Patrick Hamill
