

Susan Gable Fetter

May 20, 1950 - September 29, 2020

Susan Gable Fetter, age 70, passed away peacefully with her husband by her side on Tuesday, September 29, 2020. She was born in Lakewood, Ohio on May 20, 1950 and is preceded in death by her mother Chadeane Gable, her father Jerome Gable, her niece Kristie Rogers, and her sister-in-law Jeanne Gable. Susan will be forever loved and missed by her husband of 42 years, Jim; her daughters Sara (Matt) and Amy (Chris); her two precious grandchildren Easton and Adelaide; and her siblings Michael, Tom, Kathy, and Gary.

Susan attended Magnificat High School in Rocky River, Ohio and The Ohio State University in Columbus, Ohio. She dedicated her life to helping others, first as a cardiac nurse and later as a preschool teacher. Her greatest joy was being a mother and Gigi, cherishing every day with her daughters and grandchildren. She brought happiness to all who knew her and while she will be dearly missed by so many, her family finds comfort in knowing she has found an end to her suffering and eternal peace.

In lieu of flowers, the family strongly encourages donations to the Ovarian Cancer Research Alliance in Susan's memory: <https://ocrahope.org/>

The family will hold a Funeral Mass celebrating Susan's life at St. Matthew Catholic Church in Charlotte, North Carolina on Tuesday, October 6, 2020 at 11:00am. Due to the current COVID-19 restrictions, attendees are asked to arrive wearing a mask and adhere to social distancing measures. Family is in the care of Heritage Funeral Home, Weddington Chapel. “ We were so sorry to hear of Susan’s passing and know that she is now in God’s peaceful presence. May you all find the strength going forward to live your lives fully, as she would want, and to keep her memory alive in the hearts and minds of those who she loved. With fond regards, Pam and Jack Grant

“ I met Susan while walking one morning. She was driving through the neighborhood looking at houses. I told her of one for sale on Darlington Rd. I bet you can't guess what happened next, yes, you are right, Jim & Susan moved into our neighborhood. . During our original talk she talked about how excited she was to be find a place close to her beloved grandchildren. She loved her family. She loved her husband. While walking on another day, I saw Jim behind Susan walking. I told Jim to speed up and she looked at me and said, he is too slow. We laughed and laughed because of course the discussion led to how slow men are (a joke). Susan was filled with unconditional love. She fought the good fight. Susan, rest well until we meet again.

“ We have so many memories of Gigi. Her love for her family was always palpable but she was such a loving person that everyone nearby got to benefit from that love too. May her memory be a blessing.
