“ Yetta was an amazing woman! We met her through my parents and continued dining with her every Saturday night for over 8 years until a few months ago. She loved ice cream and her friends and family. She certainly was “up” to anything we wanted to do. On her 90th birthday we asked her where she wanted to go for her birthday dinner and she said “Hawaii”! Very witty! We had a Hawaiian themed birthday. She led a wonderful and full life. We were so honored to be her friend. Our sympathies go out to her family and know she will live forever through all those that were privileged to know her.

“ To my childhood best friend, I will always remember all the things we got into as girls. And we stayed in touch for over 80 years. To Lynn and Marilyn and families, your mother was one of a kind. May her memory be for a blessing.
